MSU Women of Color Community Conference 2025

Join the Annual MSU Women of Color Community, or WOCC, Conference! Mark your calendars for an inspiring day of connection, learning and celebration. On Friday, Feb. 21, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., the MSU Women of Color Community invites you to our annual conference with our theme, “Culture, Career and Community: Amplifying Experiences to Shape the Future Together.”

Highlight of the day:

Women of Color Cultural Experiences: Step into an interactive cultural festival that honors the rich diversity of women’s cultural heritage. Through vibrant storytelling, shared traditions and immersive activities, we will celebrate what makes each culture unique while fostering dialogue, understanding, and cross-generational appreciation.

Empowering Sessions for Professional Growth: Dive into discussions designed to support women of color navigating their professional journeys at MSU. Panelists will include MSU Human Resources, Union Representatives, Faculty and Academic Staff Affairs, Human Resources Educational Assistance, Academic Specialist supports and more.

Topics include:

- Opening Remarks (Guo Chen)
- Advancing education
- Thriving in challenging work environments
- Navigating the tenure and academic specialist tracks
- Professional development (Speaker: Sherri Reese)
- And more

This conference is more than an event — it’s a chance to connect with valuable resources, build community, and share experiences that strengthen us all. Join us as we come together to learn, grow, and celebrate our collective strength and heritage. We can’t wait to see you there. Register here.
